MYSTERY

Who He Represents.

Appearance of Attorney Causes Comment.

Mogadore Incorporation-ists Are Winners.

Court Decides Case In Their Favor.

Transfer Causes Trouble — Court House News.

The appearance of Attorney S. G. Rogers, in the error case of George H. Knowles vs. The City, is somewhat mysterious.

Attorney Andrews, who represents the plaintiff in error, in making his argument to the court, said that he had no idea who Mr. Rogers represented. He was certain that it was not the city. Mr. Rogers did not attempt to throw any light on the matter. He was there and made an able argument to sustain the decision of Mayor Young, who found Knowles guilty of violating the bill posting ordinance.

Mogadore Case.

Judge Kohler delivered an opinion Monday in the case of Albert Hale et al. vs. Williston Alling, County Recorder, et al. The action was brought to enjoin the defendant from proceeding in the work of incorporating Mogadore. Judge Kohler held with the defendants. They gave notice of appeal.

She says her mother could neither read or write and that she was of unsound mind. The day after the deed was executed Mrs. Turner died unexpectedly. The consideration was $5, the property being worth $500. The plaintiff asks that the conveyance be set aside.

Divorce Case.

Catherine Baughman, the defendant in a divorce case filed by James Baughman, has filed a motion asking $10 per week alimony.

THE WEATHER:

Increasing cloudiness tonight and showers Tuesday.

BOY KILLED

By Non-Union Conductor at Cleveland.

Akron Company Told to Be Ready to Answer Call.

CLEVELAND, July 24.—(Special)—Louis Colswell, aged 15, who was in a crowd of rioters, was shot and killed this afternoon by a non-union conductor.

The strike situation at Cleveland took such a violent turn today that it was decided to re-enforce the local police by out of town militia.

Desultory rioting continued today as usual and the authorities are determined to restore order at all hazards.

Serious trouble is feared tonight. A full account of yesterday's riots will be found on the inside today.

Akron Troops Notified.

Late this afternoon Company F of Akron and Companies A, D, M and H of the Eighth regiment, O. N. G., were given notice to assemble at their respective armories ready for duty at Cleveland at a moment's notice.

Woman Burned.

The residence of W. E. Wolf, 1017 Bowery st., was slightly damaged by fire this afternoon. The fire was caused by the upsetting of a gasoline stove.

Mrs. Wolf was pretty badly burned, but not critically.

EVIDENCE

Of Teeple's Pledge to Support Him.

Senator J. Park Alexander Produces the Original Petition.

Hon. J. Park Alexander, twice the victim of the Summit county Hanna machine, has the documents to back up his assertion that Aaron Teeple pledged himself to give his support to him at the Painesville convention. Teeple has persistently denied this. To substantiate his claim, Senator Alexander is exhibiting the following:

Akron, O., June 6, 1899.

"To Hon. J. Park Alexander:

"The undersigned delegates to the Senatorial convention of the 24th and 25th districts, respectfully request that in view of your past services to the party and your usefulness as a legislator, and for the reason of the two-term rule obtaining in this district, you become a candidate for reelection to the Senate, and we hereby pledge you our support in all honorable ways to accomplish your nomination and re-election.

(Signed) "A. TEEPLE."

It is evident that Senator Alexander has the better of the controversy. He knows, as do his friends, that he was led into the race for the purpose of being knocked down.

JUMPED IN CANAL

To Escape Ire of Steppfather—Police Court.

Herman Bohnenstefen, 140½ Barges st., was fined $5 and costs by Mayor Young Monday morning on a charge of assault and battery.

Saturday afternoon he went home in an intoxicated condition, abused his wife and proceeded to demolish the dishes and furniture in general. His stepson interceded. Bohnenstefen then took after him. The canal is nearly and the stepson plunged into the muddy water with all his clothes on. The "old man" threw sticks at him, but the son ducked and avoided punishment. A large crowd had congregated and enjoyed the amusement.

Pat Lee, drunk, $2 and costs.

Cured in One Night.

Charles H. Connell, Esq., leading lawyer of York, Pa., says: "Your Brazilian Balm cured me of one of the worst colds I ever experienced, in one night. I think it the greatest medicine in the market, and you can use my name any way you like."

CLOSED.

Fair Was a Success.

Elks Cleared About $2,000 During Week.

Attendance Not as Large as Year Ago.

Location Not Desirable One—Grounds Too Small.

Midway Left For Franklin—Carnival Notes.

The Elks' Street Fair and Carnival was as triumphant in its ending as it was in its beginning.

There was nothing about the crowds at the fair Saturday evening to indicate that they had become weary of its charms. Instead, the same jolly, good humor, characteristic of preceding nights, prevailed everywhere. The merchants and business men were just as enthusiastic in describing the articles in their displays, and the various features of amusement and attraction never amused or attracted better. It was an evening of pleasure and gaiety from first to last, and fun was fast and varied until the closing hour, 11:30.

Paid Attendance.

The paid attendance Saturday night was about 5,000. In the afternoon, 1,500.

Over $485 were taken in at the German village Saturday evening. Had it not been for the German village the street fair would have been a financial failure.

Receipts and Expenses.

All the bills not yet having been presented, and other details not completed, the committee on finances is not prepared to make a statement in reference to what money was cleared at the fair. It is thought, however, that not less than $2,000 have been cleared. The expenses were about $5,000.

At last year's fair the money cleared was about $5,000. The fair for 1898 was not conducted on as large a scale as it was this year, and then, for several reasons, the attendance this year was not as good as it was last, especially in the afternoon.

Undesirable Location.

One of the reasons assigned by the Elks for the decrease in attendance was the less desirable location as compared with that of last year. The grounds were smaller, possessing very little shade, and being quite dusty, were not attractive to afternoon crowds.

Another reason is that the Street Fairs are in a measure losing their novelty, and one or two evenings' visit to the grounds was sufficient to gratify curiosity.

Was a Success.

But then, the Elks' Street fair was a success in every sense of the word. From the word go it had the stamp of approval of Akron's best people, who were its most enthusiastic patrons. Its social pleasures were many, and for a whole week's amusement, nothing has for a long time contributed so much genuine enjoyment to Akron's people. The shows were conducted well throughout the entire week, leaving little room for complaint from any source.

Notes.

The midway attractions, under the management of the Canton Carnival company, left Sunday morning for Franklin, Pa., where a street fair will be held this week. Achille Phillion has also gone to Franklin.

The Beacon Journal of Saturday charges that two representatives of a local paper worked six men in on two passes. What with being down to a diet of sour grapes, black balls, and small potatoes, wrestling with Bosco's snakes, the Wild Man, and "Akron Teeple's Side of It," the Beacon Journal had a tough week of it.

The Elks are all congratulating themselves that the weather was on their side.

Cleveland, Canton and a few other villages that promised to do the fair thing in the way of attendance were conspicuous for their absence.

The Tyrolean singers left Monday morning for Chicago, from which place they came to Akron. The singers were great favorites with the crowds in attendance upon the German village.

SPORTS.

The regular weekly clay pigeon shoot of the Akron Rod and Gun club was held on the club's range Saturday afternoon. The totals were made out of a possible 25, and the shooting done was a very good average. Following are the scores:

Contestants.	First 25.	Totals.
Klink	18	18
Dunn	15	15
Bradley	15	15
Williams	17	17

Second 25.

Dunn	19
Bradley	16
Williams	17

Twelve Pairs Doubles.

Bradley	17
Williams	20

Third 25.

Temper a Favorite.

In the 2:19 trot at Cleveland today Temper will go out for the winning, and many horsemen expect to see her land in front. She will have a hard rival to beat in Hazel Ridge, however, and the Cleveland mare will have bravely gained her honors in beating her.

On account of her showing at Detroit, Annie Thornton will likely be the favorite in the betting, but she will find that the race will be a hard one.

Wiese Won.

The Akron-Alliance road race was won by John Wiese. Lee Shipman finished first, reaching Akron at 3:05 making his time two hours and five minutes. Wiese reached Akron at 3:48, his riding time being one hour and 48 minutes. The race was for a bet of $20. The roads were not in good condition for racing.

Cycle Runs.

The North End Athletic club rode to Canton Sunday.

The Tip Top Cycle club spent Sunday at Long Lake.

RESPONSIBLE

Positions Will Be Held by P. & W. Officials.

It was stated in railroad circles Saturday that the deal is practically closed, whereby the Baltimore & Ohio is to assume direct control of the Pittsburgh and Western. It is understood that when final arrangements have been completed the present officials of the Pittsburgh & Western will hold responsible positions under the new management.

The Pittsburgh & Western will enter the consolidation in splendid shape, with its roadbed practically reconstructed and its equipment renewed. It is really the most valuable property the Baltimore & Ohio could lay its hands upon in the center of the region traversed by the system.

CATTLE BARN

Will Be Erected at Fountain Park—Old Site.

The committee appointed by the Summit County Agricultural society to determine upon a location upon which to erect new cattle barns at fair grounds, decided Saturday, to erect the buildings on the old site. The new building will be 40x140 and will accommodate about 100 cattle.

Work will be commenced on the erection of the new building at once. The Executive committee will likely advertise Tuesday for bids to do the work.

Houses Scarce.

Desirable houses for rent are very scarce in Akron at present. A number of young married couples who came to the city late in the spring, have been living at boarding houses during their inability to find houses for rent in the more desirable localities of the city.

FAMILY

Is Left Destitute.

Wife and Six Children Survive Dusty.

Funeral Services of the Three Victims.

Terrible Effect of the Fall of Clay.

Remains Identified by Clothes the Men Wore.

Funeral services over the remains of the three victims of the fall of clay at the Buckeye Sewer Pipe company's pit Saturday morning were held Monday.

The Polander who Saturday afternoon was thought to be a stranger named Mike Popowich, was on Saturday night identified by Mrs. John Dusty, of 136 Canal st., as her husband. So badly disfigured was his face that Mrs. Dusty's only means of identifying his body was by the clothes he wore. Mrs. Dusty was accompanied in her visit to Vial's morgue by her daughter, who is one of six children of the family, and aged about 13 years. Their grief at finding husband and father dead was intensely pathetic. The survivors of the deceased are Mrs. Dusty and the six children. Dusty was a laborer and had lived in Akron about six years. He had called at the clay pit to see Polasky. Dusty was aged 37 years.

As was first reported, the name of the other Polander was Andrew Polosky, instead of "Polavnek." He boarded with his employer, Ira Sprague, of 1029 East Market st., and was 35 years of age. He had been working at the clay pit for some time.

Dusty and Polosky were both members of the St. Vincent de Paul's church. Funeral services were held at the church Monday morning, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Daniel Callahan was aged 35 years. He, too, boarded with Mr. Sprague, and had been in his employ for several months. A stranger who viewed Callahan's remains Sunday said that the unfortunate man hailed from Meadville, Pa. His mother is dead, and his father is being cared for in a charity home for the poor. Callahan was unmarried.

Callahan was buried in the East Akron cemetery Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The victims of the terrible accident were all without means. The Dusty family has been left in almost destitute circumstances.

Contractor Sprague will pay the funeral expenses of Callahan and Polosky, and Dusty was buried at the expense of the city.

Many persons called at Vial's morgue Sunday to view the remains of the three dead men. Those who saw the bodies at the morgue Saturday afternoon thought that it would be impossible for the undertakers to get them in such shape that they might be recognized.

The work of preparing the bodies was a great task. Pieces of stone and slate had to be taken from the flesh of all three. When it is considered that the clay and stones fell a distance of about 40 feet, and that the men were buried directly beneath the fall, an idea may be had of the character of their injuries. The bodies were literally crushed.

The many rumors Saturday afternoon that more men had perished in the accident are happily without foundation, as the above three men are positively known to be the only ones in the pit at the time of the cave in.

The Inquest.

Coroner E. O. Leberman has not yet decided when the inquest will be held.

Natural Gas

Notice to the Citizens of Akron:

In order to introduce into all homes in the city of Akron in the shortest possible time the use of Natural Gas, The East Ohio Gas company will give

A Discount, From the Present Fixed Rates, of 5c For Each 1,000 Cubic Feet.

Of gas used for domestic purposes during the year commencing July 1st, 1899, and ending July 1st, 1900.

As the company is making all house connections at actual cost of materials and labor, it believes that this saving in the price of gas will go largely towards the expense of piping the houses and will give the company the advantage of having every citizen (even the poorest) as a consumer, thus affording to all the best and cheapest fuel. To encourage the use of gas by manufacturers, special rates will be given on application at the office.

COTTAGE GROVE

Purchased By C. T. & V. R. R.—It Will Be Re-opened.

The Cleveland Terminal & Valley railroad took possession of Cottage Grove lake, Saturday, which it purchased a few days ago. Last year Cottage Grove lake was used as a summer resort and was considered very popular. The management, however, was not altogether satisfactory to the patrons, and it was not a financial success.

It is now proposed that it be turned into a pleasure resort and fixed up. This work is already under way, and it is expected that the first trips there will be run in a very short time. The grove in question is directly on the line of the road, and is located four miles from Krumroy, on the same line.

LABOR CLAIM.

It Resulted In Lively Law Suit—Given Judgment.

A lively case tried in the court of Justice Betz of Coventry, Saturday afternoon, was that in which Arthur Morgan brought suit to recover a labor claim of $150 from Thomas Snyder. Both the plaintiff and defendant live in Coventry township.

Three years ago Morgan was employed to work on Snyder's barn. Some trouble arose when an effort was made to reach a settlement, and the bill was not paid.

Farmer Snyder also had a counter-charge against Morgan, accusing him of killing a valuable cow.

The case was decided in favor of Morgan, who was given judgment for $70.

NO MEETING — The Retail Clerks' union will not meet Tuesday night.

SMALL BLAZE—A barrel of compound was discovered on fire in the yard of the Akron Varnish works Sunday at 1 o'clock. The chemical engine extinguished the blaze. The origin theory advanced is that it caught fire from being over heated by the sun.

Go to Randolph park for blue gill suppers; blue gills served every evening.

Struck In the Eye.

Albert Holden, a Rapid Transit conductor, has one of his eyes in mourning.

Saturday night he asked one of the Roething boys twice for a fare by mistake. Roethig got mad and struck Holden in the eye with his fist. Holden said he would have Roethig arrested this afternoon.
